1. On 15 June, the Infanterie Kaserne on Klosterstrasse, Strausberg (H 53/V 15), quartered about 500 men who, according to the [REDACTED], attended a course of instruction for NCOs and sergeants rather than a course for cooks as was previously reported. Troops of different branches of service were observed. The courses allegedly lasted two weeks, and the troops arrived in small groups or individually.

2. On 13 June, about 120 men received field training on the Marienberg. Three unnumbered new trucks arrived at the Strausberg railroad station on 7 June and were driven to the barracks installation. Truck [REDACTED] hauled coal. *

- * [REDACTED] Comment. Since [REDACTED] reported young soldiers of various branches of service were in the Infanterie Kaserne as early as 16 May 1951, [REDACTED] that courses of instruction for NCOs were conducted there is given more credence than the [REDACTED] that cooks were being trained there. Truck [REDACTED] mentioned in the present report, belongs to the Second Gas AAA Div.
